

NORWICH FILM FESTIVAL – ONE MINUTE MOVIE RULES AND GUIDELINES FOR 2024 ENTRY

Please read the following guidelines carefully. Due to the volume of entries we receive, it is essential that films be submitted in the format specified below.

ONE MINUTE MOVIE CATEGORY

One Minute Movie is the micro-short film competition set up and run as part of Norwich Film Festival. This non-competitive category accepts films of any genre, style and theme, with the key rule being that they must last 60 seconds or less. The competition is open to all.

Films will be judged by our online screening committee, with selected films to be screened during the 2024 edition of the festival. Selected films may also be shown on various other platforms as chosen by Norwich Film Festival.

Key Dates

Submissions for the One Minute Movie category open on 15th January 2024.

The deadline for submissions is 30th June 2024.

The festival will take place from 11th – 24th November - please note that exact dates may be subject to change.

Eligibility

One Minute Movie is open to all. Films must have a run time of 60 seconds or less. This includes titles and credits. Any style of film, as well as any genre is acceptable.

Films lasting longer than 60 seconds will be disqualified from consideration and no refunds will be given.

Films must promote or advertise products or services.

Norwich Film Festival reserves the right to refuse entry to any film at any time. We also reserve the right to terminate, suspend or modify either the contest or the official rules at any time.

Any film which does not fulfil these requirements will be disqualified. No refunds will be given.

Entry process

All submissions must be entered online via our FilmFreeway page:

<https://filmfreeway.com/NorwichFilmFestival>. No postal or email submissions will be accepted. If you enter this contest, you are accepting our terms and conditions.

Submissions cost £3 per film. A small discount is available for FilmFreeway Gold members.

All films will then be reviewed by our online screening committee and some films will be selected for screening during the 2023 Norwich Film Festival. All our judges' decisions are final.

All submitters will be notified of our selection decision via email and FilmFreeway, on or before 18th August 2024. Due to extremely high number of submissions we receive each year, we are unfortunately unable to offer feedback on unsuccessful submissions.

Submission format

- Films will only be accepted via our online portal at www.FilmFreeway.com. This is our only method of submission.
- No postal submissions will be accepted.
- Your film must be watchable in full via a browser at the time your submission is received. We recommend using FilmFreeway's direct upload feature, Vimeo or YouTube. Submissions not containing a watchable film will not be considered.
- If your film is not in the English language, subtitles must be burned-in or able to be turned on via the player.
- Refunds will not be offered if you fail to adhere to these rules.

What to include in your submission

At the time of your submission, we require the below to be included and available via your FilmFreeway submission.

- Your full film (watchable within a browser)
- A brief synopsis of your film
- Key credits (director, producer, writer, key cast)
- A brief director biography
- At least 5 high stills from the film (not BTS stills)

If there is anything you'd specifically like to tell us about your submission, you may also add a brief cover letter and/or director statement.

For convenience in the event that your film is selected, you may also wish to add the below, but these are not essential at the time of the submission. We recommend you include at least the following:

- A trailer
- A poster (portrait, 300dpi)
- A press kit
- Behind the scenes images

Should your film be accepted we will require digital images and other press/publicity materials to help us promote your film and the festival at large. Please do not, however, send hard copies as we will be unable to store them at the Festival office due to the high volume of submissions we receive. Any hard copies sent prior to acceptance will be recycled. FilmFreeway allows digital press packs to be uploaded with submission, and we strongly recommend you do this to avoid missing out later.

The more (digital) information you include with your submission, the more we can promote your film once accepted into the festival. Of course, if non-essential assets are not ready at the time of submission, you may provide these at a later date.

Methods of Payment

All entries must be made through FilmFreeway, which accepts online payment. If, for some reason, you are unable to pay through this website, we will accept Paypal payments, made to submissions@norwichfilmfestival.co.uk.

Please note, if you intend to pay online, Paypal charges 3.4% per transaction, so please add a £1.50 transaction fee to any submissions sent via this method.

Submissions will not be accepted until payment is received in full.

If requested, any publicity materials should be sent to:

Selection

Selection will be carried out by the Norwich Film Festival team. No correspondence will be entered into regarding the selection process and the decision of the Festival Executive Committee are final. We aim to inform successful applicants by the end of August at the latest. Unfortunately, due to the volume of entries and time constraints, we will be unable to offer individual feedback or enter into any discussion about your work.

Successful submissions will be listed on our website (www.norwichfilmfestival.co.uk) and social media outlets, and successful applicants will be notified by email or over the phone. Please therefore make sure that we can reach you in the months of August and September so that we can confirm your film's inclusion in the Festival programme.

Please note that only successful applicants will be notified personally. If we are unable to contact you during this period your film may be removed from the Festival line up.

Festival Screenings and Scheduling

All screenings during the Festival period will take place at the discretion of the Festival. We reserve the right to make changes to the advertised schedule at any time for any reason and will not accept liability for any costs incurred as a result of such changes.

No film may be withdrawn from the Norwich Film Festival programme by its submitter after its selection / participation has been confirmed.

The Festival is not able to cover the costs of any format transfers or subtitling. Digital screening copies of selected titles (if requested) must be received by the Festival by 15 September 2024. Please use the following format only:

- H264, 1920 x 1080, 48 kHz 24-bit audio, .mov wrapper.
- Export using square pixels.
- Files should not exceed 10GB.
- Dropbox is our preferred delivery method as it minimises failed downloads. Please send to submissions@norwichfilmfestival.co.uk.
- You may also send files via WeTransfer, to the above email address.
- FilmFreeway allows films to be uploaded to the submission platform, and we highly recommend this as a back up.

All entries must be the original work of the entrant and must not infringe upon the copyrights, trademarks, rights of privacy, publicity or other intellectual property or other rights of any person or entity. If the film contains any material or elements that are not owned by the entrant and/or which are subject to the rights of third parties, the entrant is responsible for obtaining, prior to the submission of the film, any and all releases and consents necessary to permit use and exploitation of the film by Norwich Film Festival in the manner set forth in the official rules without additional compensation, including, without limitation, location releases for footage shot at any location; name, voice and likeness releases for any person whose name, voice and/or likeness appears in the film (other than entrant); releases for the use of any props, set dressings and other materials used in the film; releases from any individuals participating in the production of the film and releases for any other audio and/or audio-visual materials not wholly owned by entrant, which, in each case, are used in the film (collectively the "Clearances"). Cancellation Process

Should the festival organisers decide to cancel the festival without reason prior to the Official Selection, every effort will be made to reimburse those who have paid to submit their film.

Should the festival get cancelled without reason after the announcement of the Official Selection, priority reimbursement will be given to those filmmakers who have been selected to be a part of the festival. Those filmmakers who were not due to be a part of the festival because their film was not selected will not be reimbursed.

In the event of circumstances being beyond the control of the festival organisers (such as natural disaster, viral/bacterial pandemic, etc) then every effort will be made to pause, postpone, or amend the festival so that it still goes ahead in some form. We will never look to cancel the festival if we can look to rearrange. In such circumstances, no refunds will be issued as submission fees will be used to continue the planning of the festival at a different place or time.

Thank you for your interest in submitting to the Norwich Film Festival.

We look forward to receiving your film!
